PROPOSALS BY LITTLE & BROWN THE LIFE AND WORKS OF JOHN ADAMS,

tee copies of the DAILY, for -

of the BEMI-WEEKLY. -

THE public will be glad to learn that the publication of the works of John Adams, so long delayed, will now be commenced as soon as an adequate subscription shall have been obtained. It is intended to embrace, in the proposed ilection, the works of Mr. Adams on Government siready published, but now out of print, and a selection from a most voluminous mass of manuscripts which have never sen the light.

The colication is to be made and edited by the Hon. Charles Francis Adams, the depositary of all the manuscripts as well of John Adams as of his lather, the late John Quizer Adams; and is intended as the first of two great publications, clucidating the History of the Rise and Progress of these United States, from the year 1781, in which the revolutionary struggle first began, down to the year 1814, when the younger Adams died.

The materials for the lirst of the two works are much more ample than has generally been supposed. John Adams, during nearly all his life, scraphiously preserved his papers, and among them are found many of a curious and singularly interesting character. Probably the most remarkable, at least in the eyes of the world, will prove to be a Diary, commenced by him as early as 1755, and carried on for thirty years, including the largest portion of his public career. Thus Diary will be found to contain a great amount of valuable mater connected with the early movements of the Revolution in Massachusetts, and to invove most of the Revolution in Massachusetts, and to invove motes of the debates during a portion of that period, which, in the dearth of all knowledge of them, will be highly valuable to posterity.

It is well known that an intention was long entertained by the younger Mr. Adams to write a memoir of his father. This, although not entirely executed, was commenced. A

These will include the essay on the canon and fession law, the defence of the American constitution, the various editions of which have been long since exhausted, and the discourses on Davia, to all of which illustrations, drawn from the unpublished writings of Mr. Adams, or supplied by the editor from other sources, will be added.

Such selections will be made from the Discry, and from the private papers, as may be considered most likely to promote a better acquaintance with the times in which Mr. Adams lived and agted than is yet possessed, even after all the valuable contributions which have already been famished from other quarters. On the whole, the publishers confidently heljeve that there is no work relating to the revolutionary history of the United States, and indeed of the times in which Mr. Adams lived, that surpasses in historical and political value the yolumes now offered to the patronage of the American people. And they strongly hope that they shall find themselves so well sustained in this great enterprise as to be encouraged to go on and perfect the other and later part of it, the Life and Works of the no less distinguished son, John Quincy Adams.

The works will be brought out from time to time, commencing during the autumn of 1349, and completed within a reasonable period, consistently with proper attention to the high character designed to be given to them, and in the following order:

1. Works upon government.

ollowing order:
Works upon government.
Political papers, including Controversial Publications of the Revolution.

2. Pointeal papers, including Controversial Publications of the Kevolution.

3. Messages and Public Papers

4. Diary.

5. Private Letters on Public Subjects, 1774 to 1801.

6. Private Letters from 1756 to 1826.

7. Life, by John Quincy Adams, continued by the editor.

8. Original unpublished Letters of Franklin, Jay, Jefferson, the Lees, Laurens, Gerry, Dana, Izard, and ether emment Patriots of the Revolution.

The work will be beautifully printed, in ten volumes, in the octave form, each volume containing from 500 to 600 pages, and put up in cloth, at the price of $2.25 a volume.

A limited number of copies will be struck off on large paper, and put up in the same style of binding, price $3 a volume.

Subscriptions and orders are respectfully solicited by the proprietors.

KEEPS THE TEETH, GUMS, AND MOUTH PURE, AND SWEETENS THE BREATH.

Preserving the teeth, gams, and mouth fresh, pure, and healthy; and, from the slow and insidious ravages which time is liable to cause, is the most agreeable property of Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash. It prevents the decay or natural corruption which the progress of time gradually brings upon the teeth, expels all corrupt humors, preyents the accumulation of tartar, and removes the almost imperceptible animalculae which are so liable to be located in the decayed cavities; and it preserves the teeth from all other impurities, and constantly tends to purify, keep sound and healthy, and greatly to strengthen and preserve them.

It keeps the gums and mouth fresh, pure, and healthy, creating a healthy action and circulation in the gums, and by its astringency and tonic effects healing up and correcting impurities, and, together with its purifying properties and fragrance, keeps the breath sweet and pure, and preserves the teeth, gums, and mouth excellent in appearance and healthy.

I find on trial that Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash is of superior excellence, and freely recommend it to all fond of sound and white teeth, and a pure breath.

W. P. SMITH.

I have seen the beneficial effects of Wheeler's Teaberry

I have seen the beneficial effects of Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash, in the case of a young lady whose teeth and gums were affected. It afforded every satisfaction.

T. COOKE, M. D.
I have used Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash, and recommend it to favorable notice and patronage, as being pleasant to the gums and teeth, and as leaving a pleasant ragrance on the breath.

Having used Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash, I recommend it to public favor, as possessing paritying properties, which render the teeth cleanly, and make the gums healthy.

I have used Wheeler's Teaberry Tooth Wash, and tound

A PLATT, and STEWART, late of Wall, now of William street, New York, have extended a branch of their office to Washington for transaction of public business. It will be under the constant charge of one of their number—Charles H. Stewart, a legal gentleman of over thirty years' experience in his profession, and eleven in the advocacy of public claims. As a guaranty to the confidence of the public, Mr. Stewarth, a legal gentleman of over thirty years' experience in his profession, and eleven in the advocacy of public claims. As a guaranty to the confidence of the public, Mr. Stewarth has been favored with the testimonials of officers of the general government and other public gentlemen, before whom his advocacy lay, showing his skill in preparing his cases, his great diligence, knowledge of business, tact of advocacy, and uniform success. It would not be becoming to here allude further to those, but Eldredge, Platt, and Stewart solicit persons who require the transaction of public business to peruse their circular with these testimonials at foot, and they will find that higher passports to confidence cannot be presented, nor a better guaranty for success be reasonably demanded.

Without entering into detail, Eldredge, Platt, and Stewart will attend to public business of every nature in Washington, and, through their office in New York, to business in that eity also. Their charges will be moderate and prearranged. For attention they pledge their established character, with the habits of a life mutured in business and advocacy, assuring those who may try them that what their testimonials show as done for others they will do for them, and that they will always be found at their post in this city as well during the recess as the sittings of Congress.

ODS AND ENDS, REJINANTS, &c.—D. CLAGETT & CO., being determined to clear out their stock "slick and clean," would now respectfully inform all ladies who wish to furnish their children for the approaching season with some of the very prettiest goods we ever and for dresses, at prices next to nothing, that they now have an apportunity which may never again occur.

We have now on hand remnants of Mousselines de Laine, silk Tissnes, Barege, Silks, Chintz, Lawa, Gingham, and Calico.

Also, remnants of Damask, Sheeting, Towelling, Cloth, Cassinere, Flannel, &c.

All of which have been measured, and have the quantities marked on them, and are laid out destined to be pushed off at one-half or one-fourth of their worth; or, if that will not do, to be given away; any way, so that we age rid of them. So we advise the ladies to be quick, or they will be too late.
